

For the memories we'll have, the tears that we've cried, While wearing the hat of a student with pride;

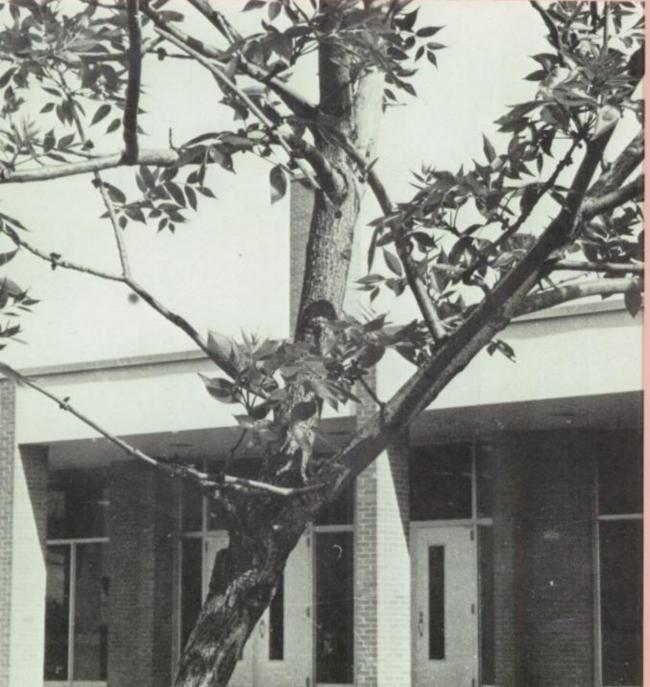

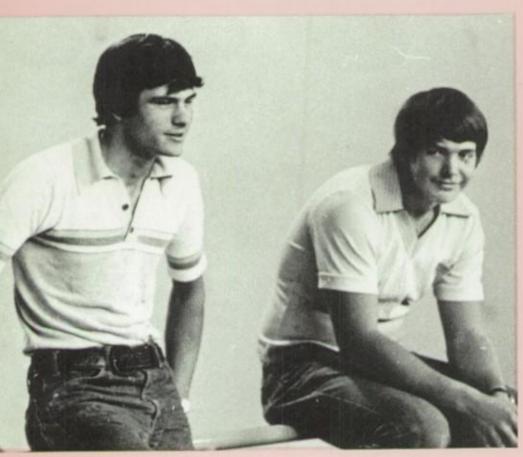

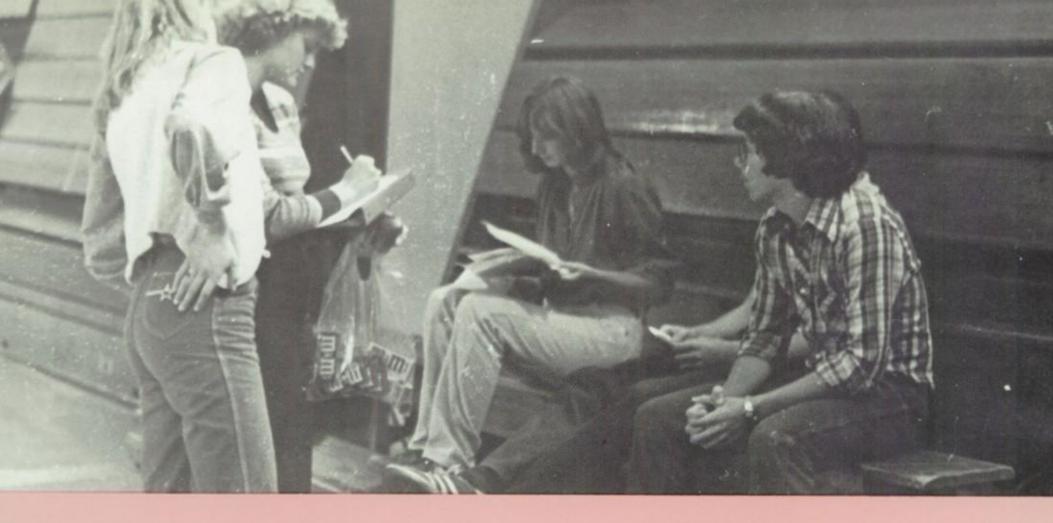

Just the whisp of a leaf and the chirp of a wren Make us realize we've reached the Beginning Again.

The days now gone by are not really lost,

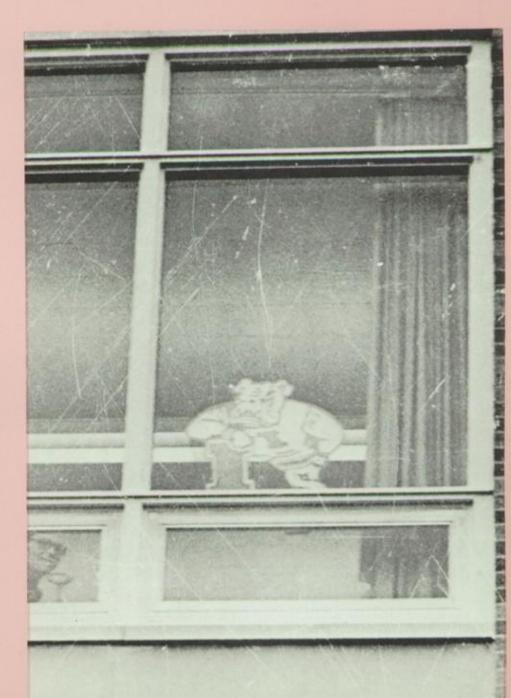

They live for us now on the roads that we've crossed.

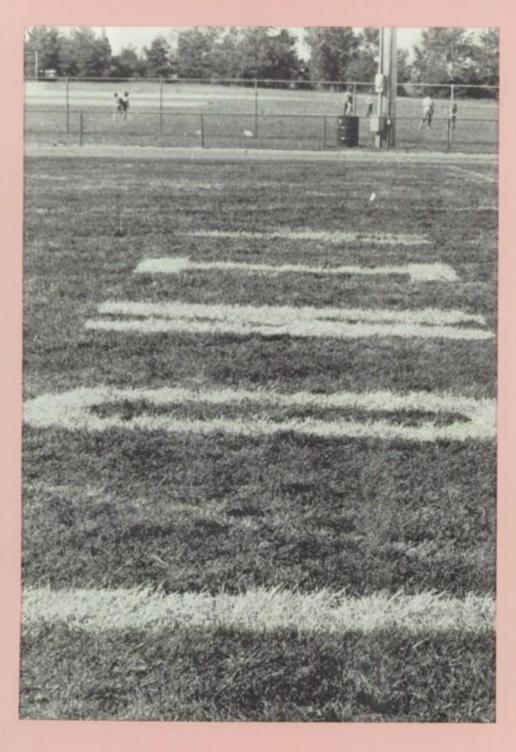

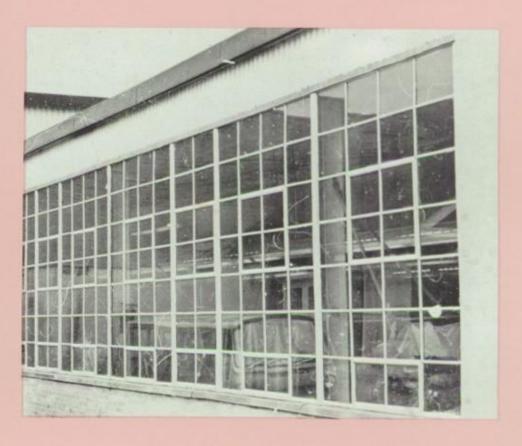

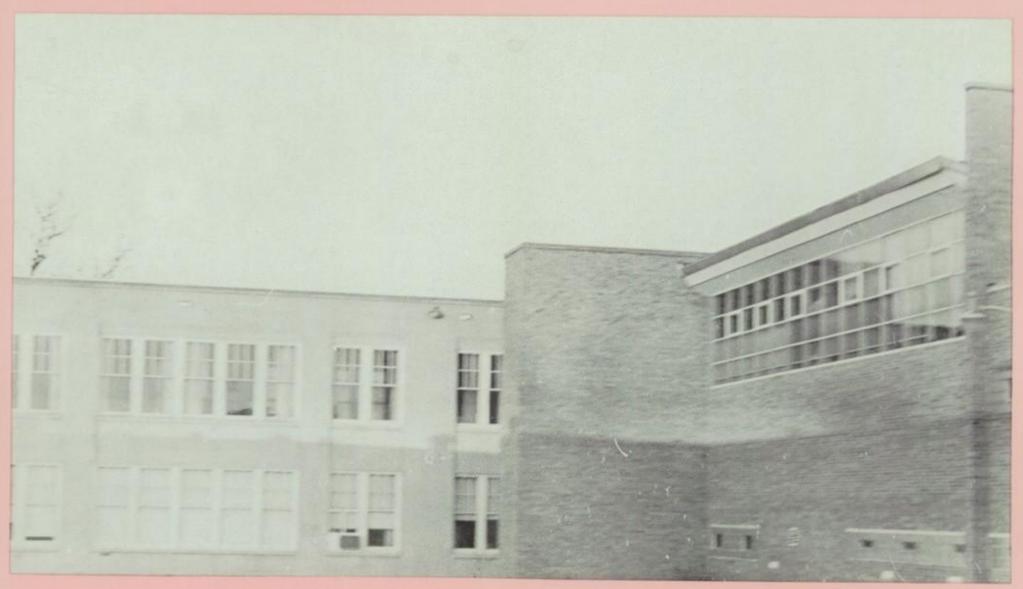

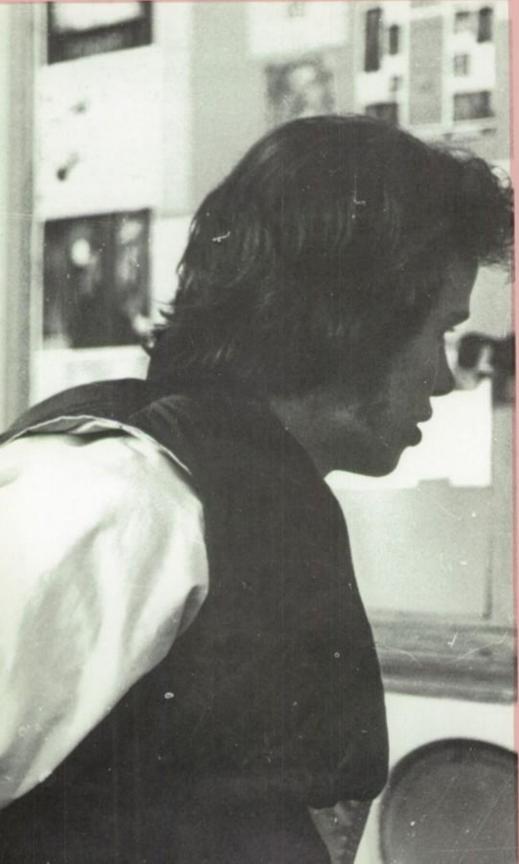

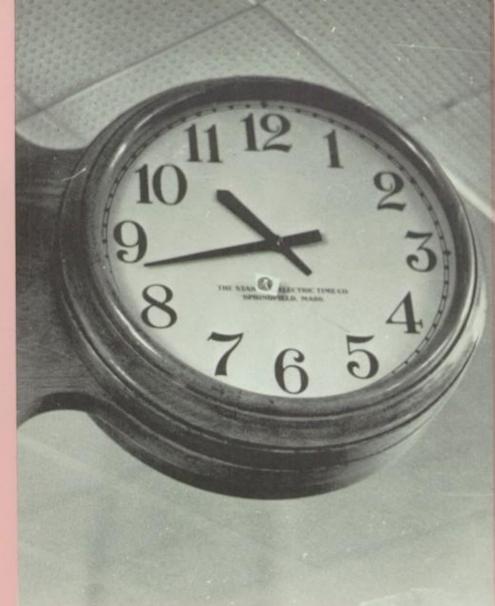

The years of learning have built our ships hull So the water to come forms no obstacle;

Me wait for the days, and then realize in Iune, "The Beginning Again" is coming soon!

A C T I ACTIVITIES I T I E S

They Danced the Night Away

Returning alumni, King and Queen, cheerleaders, decorated cars, lots of exciting football, and the traditional dance following the game. What does it all mean? IHS Homecoming of course!

The Varsity and JV cheerleaders circled the track in a truck, arousing the pre-game spirit in the impatient fans by chanting and throwing miniature footballs to viewers in the stands.

The tension mounted for that first glimpse of the Bulldog team, as the marching band broke into song. What song?! "Wave the Flag". What else?

At last the spectacular entrance, and the beginning of the fight to keep the Chesaning team down, as the first half of the game got underway.

Half-time brought the real excitement with the crowning of King Russ Stencel and Queen Cindy Hayden by Assistant Principal Elvin Betz. Other Senior representatives were Jane Dipzinski, Connie Kauffman, Beth Ludwick, Kelli Listerman, Mike Gustafson, Steve LaPointe, Barry Sherman, and Bob Waters. Class representatives were Juniors, Cindy Peacock and Bob Wright; Sophomores, Lynda Waters and Tim Ludwick; and Freshmen, Caren Hamblin and Bob Hayden.

Though the Bulldogs weren't as successful as they'd hoped to be in keeping up with Chesaning, the evening wasn't over with the game loss. The traditional Homecoming Dance followed, as "Time Machine" played on and on and...

Ah Yes, The Simple Days Are Remembered As Actors Refresh Those Forgotten Memories

Out of the city and into the country was the scene for this year's fall play. Eugene O'Neill's comedy, "Ah Wilderness", was presented by the IHS Drama Department.

The three act play took you back to the days when life was simple and full of excitement. As a young youth, Richard Miller, played by Ray Voet, falls in love with the girl next door, Muriel McComber, played by Laurie Lower. Muriel's father decides that it would be best if the two sweethearts stayed away from each other. As the story goes along the couple arranges to meet secretly at the beach. They let each other know exactly how they feel for one another and decide they will stay together forever.

Directed by Mr. Raymond Monte, it was another success for the IHS Drama Department. Other leads were played by Ted Sleder, Connie Ciangi, Phil Reglin and Betsy Seymour.

Dreaming of A Bare Christmas?

Dreamin' of a White Christmas!!! Christmas cheer, vacation time, and hopes for presents were passing in our minds. 'Twas mid-December and the ground's still bare, but Christmas shoppers didn't care.

Everyone got the Christmas spirit, and the Student Council led the way. Christmas cards were sent, and poinsettas delivered. Christmas activities were at their peak as the Juniors put on this years Christmas dance. Santa even showed up for the event.

Just Another Week-Or Is It?

Bobby socks, saddle shoes, sombreros, checks, stripes, and blue and white were some of the things being worn around IHS during Spirit Week, the last week of September.

This week was a highlight of Homecoming festivities, and started off with 50's day. Students could see girls with skirts, bobby socks, saddle shoes and ponytails, while the boys wore t-shirts, rolled up jeans, and slicked their hair back.

If you saw someone dressed completely out of the ordinary, you new it had to be Tuesday-Wild and Crazy Day.

Stripes and plaids, unmatching shoes and ties, was the scene of Wednesday's clash day.

Sombreros, derbies, baseball caps, and bonnets were some of the hats that covered the heads of many IHS students on hat day.

Finally the most important day of all-Friday. This was the day for students and faculty to get into the spirit for the big Homecoming game by wearing blue and white. Some students with extra spirit painted their faces blue and white.

Spirit week surely proved "IHS to you we're loyal," as this week's participation expressed true loyal-ty from the students to our school-IHS.

Prom '79 Surely "A Touch of Class"

Prom '79 was held in the nostalgic atmosphere of the Elks Ballroom on May 19, 1979. Prom took on a Roman Greek Theme and was a complete success.

Entertainment was provided by a group known as the "Gypsies." The group was well-received among all the people in attendance, as they provided the prom guests with an evening full of never to be forgotten memories.

Prom '79 was sponsored by the class of 1980. Chairman for the event was Jon Gazella, while Janie Dipzinski was in charge of refreshments and Dee Ann Blundy was responsible for choosing the band. Junior and Sophomore classes helped prepare the decorations for Prom '79, having shrubs, pillars, center pieces of flowers on the tables, canapies, and even a red carpet.

The class of '81 provided the sophomore servers which consisted of: Jerry Adams, Sue Conner, Jeanie Gaffney, Dan Gemuend, Scott Gorby, Molly Griffin, Carol Hanulcik, Lynn McPherson, Karen Renucci and Martha Sykes.

"Oliver" Cast Packs Em In Poverty breeds crime was the theme depicted by the Spring Musical "Oliver".

"Oliver", a story based upon Charles Dickens' Oliver Twist, shows the world of poverty, crime and workhouses. Oliver was deserted by his family and ended up in a workhouse under the direction of Mr. Bumble. Bumble sold Oliver to Mr. Sowerberry, the undertaker. Oliver runs away and found himself in the hands of Fagin and his gang. This gang helped Oliver to be placed in jail. Oliver's innocence was proved and he was put in the hands of Mr. Brownlow, a rich man who wanted to adpot Oliver. Oliver was kidnapped when Fagin learned that Oliver was a descendent of a rich family. Oliver was restored to Brownlow after a chase and Fagin was now without everything.

This very interesting musical included such popular songs as "Where is Love", "Consider Yourself", and Reviewing the Situation."

The musical was received by packed crowds and delighted the audience, as usual.

Student director was Sue Conner and the whole play was magnificently performed under the direction of Mr. Raymond Monte.

Science And Key Clubs Plan For Busy Year Ahead

Gustav Beyer has been the Key Club advisor for the past several years. The main purpose of the Key Club is to aid the school and community as a service club. The Key Club, with the help of the Kwanis Club, purchased a larger projection screen for the auditorium. They've also started a teacher appreciation week, and have participated in the Pine Vista Christmas party every year.

This year's Science Club was advised by Gary Kilborn and Ted Hagen. The Science Club is for students with a more active interest in science. This year the Science Club has taken part in a nature hike and collected specimens. They are also going on an annual Chicago trip to the Museum of Science and Industry, and a trip to Washington D.C. during Spring break.

Busy Year For 'Foreign' Clubs

Doing something different this year to raise money for their annual trip, the French Club held a marathon dance. Winners of the dance were able to accompany the French Club to Montreal, Canada. Also planned this year was a trip to Europe, a first for the members of the French Club.

Advisor Deborah Hagen also had a busy year in trip planning for the Spanish Club, where else but Spain?

The Spanish Club was able to finance its trip through candy and cheese sales.

Debate, Forensics Have Active Year Engaging in Communication

The Debate team had a very successful year this year winning eight trophies. They do not take part in any money making projects but focus their attention on interscholastic ability.

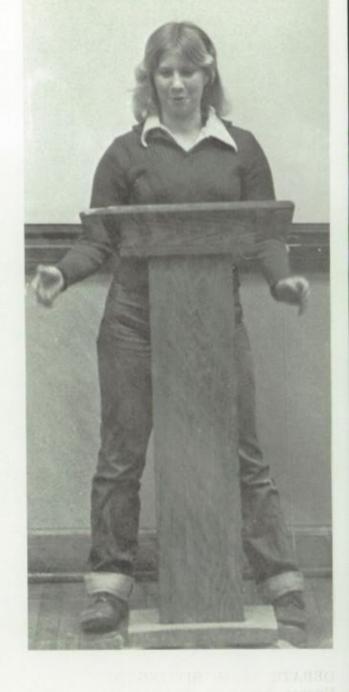

This year the team came in first in the Varsity O-K Debate League, 4th in the Outstate Debate League, 3rd in the Novice C.A.C. League, and 1st in the JV O-K League. They won the Marshall Tournament, came in second in the O-K Novice Tournament, and placed 5-1 in the District Tournament.

Connie Ciangi and Marilyn

Hoover made the quarter finals State Tournament.

The season ended in January with Connie Ciangi and Marilyn Hoover going on to State Competition.

Meanwhile, the Forensics team had skills in areas of oral communication through interscholastic competition. It was supervised by Mr. Tipton. The Forensics team was just beginning to start their competition as the yearbook was going into print, but was looking forward to a good season.

The bands, this year again, had a successful year.

The jazz band, under the direction of Andrew MacFarland, was as superb as ever. They were honored by being asked to participate in a concert at the University of Michigan. They received a standing ovation which highlighted their year. Also they presented performances for their local fans.

The symphonic and concert bands again strived for perfection. Many days of rehearsal and preparation always pays off for the bands when they attend the various band festivals. Members of the bands also participate in the annual Solo and Ensemble Festival spending some of their own personal time on furthering their musical abilities.

Get In Shape At The Wheel

The dream of most teenagers is to be able to drive. But before you can drive you need to learn how.

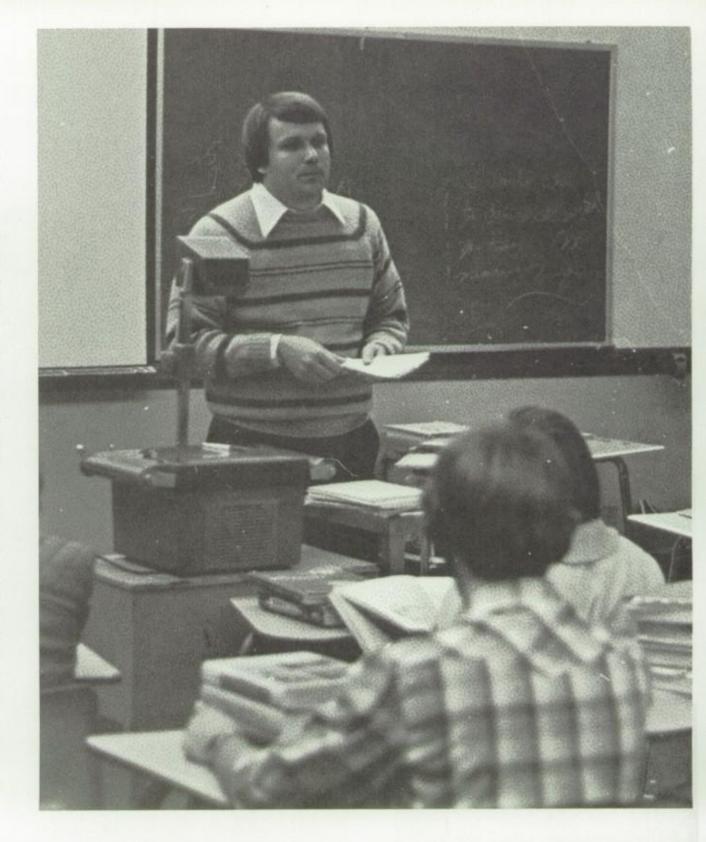

Drivers education at IHS gives a student a thorough and complete course on how to drive. With 30 hours of class time and 6 hours of on the road training, a student can feel confident behind the wheel.

IHS runs 4 sections during the school year and 8-10 sections during the summer, turning out about 400 students. Local car dealers including Bergers, Caswell's and Schanski's, donate cars for the course.

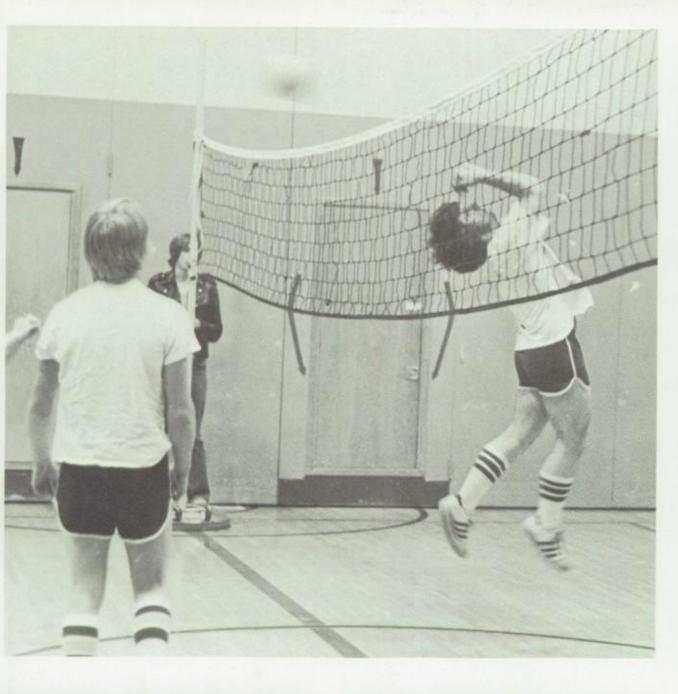

It's not quite as strenuous as training for the Olympics but the physical education course at IHS will get you in shape.

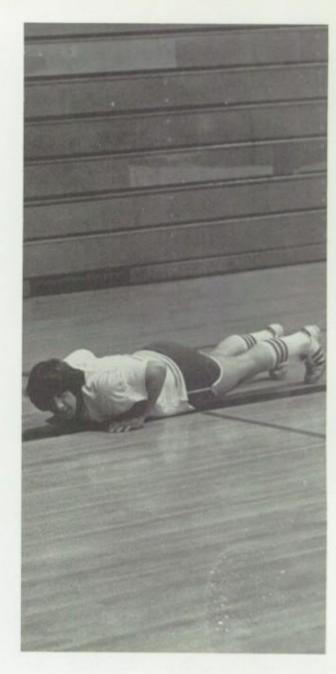

Students can choose from 3 areas. Physical Education, which is relatively light, dealing with game rules and conditioning. Advanced Physical Education involves participation in games and tougher activities.

Body Mechanics deals with physical weight training. Not only lifting weights but being shown the proper way to do so.

Chorus And Choir Obtain Uniforms, Concerts, Officers

Chorus and Choir classes at IHS were very active this past year taking on a campaign to raise money and also participating in many concerts.

Chorus is for first-year students with no high school vocal background. Choir is for students that have already had chorus.

This year's drive to raise money included selling flowers. The money made from the flowers will be put to use to buy new uniforms for the students in the classes.

Besides singing everyday during class, the students performed in many extra-curricular activities including Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Mrs. Jane Karlzen, director of the two classes, also formed an Honors Quartet that included Amy Strickling, soprano; Dee Dee Lower, alto; Ron Charles, bass; and Chris Haas, tenor.

This group consists of the best singers in their respective groups. The quartet performed in the Western Festival in the spring.

The class also elected Sally Ball to serve as president and Loretta Burgtorff as secretary.

Shared Time and Co-op Offer Many Experiences

Ionia High School offered two programs which helped students prepare for the working world, Coop and Shared Time. Juniors and Seniors were able to take these programs.

The Co-op program was under the supervision of Mr. Steve Jorgensen for the second year. This program's main purpose was to help train the students and to help them find a job.

Mr. Jorgensen stated that approximately 65 students participated in Co-op this year. Most of the students were involved in either Agriculture, Retailing, Secretarial, or Health Related Areas.

Shared Time and Vocational Education was divided into three sections: local or high school, Ionia County, and Montcalm County.

The local Vocational Ed. included: Farm Shop, Building Trades, and Model Office. These classes took place at the high school.

Ionia County Shared-Time included 5 schools: Saranac, Belding, Portland, Lakewood and Ionia. The Ionia county program had been going on for 4 years. Included were: Health Careers, Distributive Education, and Child Care and Guidance.

The Montcalm County Shared-Time program involved 10 schools and they met at the new Skills Center up at Montcalm College, all except the students involved in Auto Mechanics which met at the college. The courses included: Auto Body, Auto Mechanics, Machine Shop, Small Engine Repair, and Cosmetology.

Shared-Time was under the supervision of Mrs. Pat Moore who had been involved in Shared-Time since 1972.

Students Perform Many Activities, Plan More

This year the Resource Room had performed many different activities and hoped to participate in many more. The Ice Cream Store, volunteer work at the Christmas Workshop and selling carmel apples at Halloween, were just a few of the activities. According to Mrs. Jessica Allen, teacher, hopefully some of the students will be able to participate in volunteer work at the Ionia Manor.

This year the Resource Room changed its style, they added a new Techer's Aide, Mrs. Charlene Austin and changed the name of their ice cream store to the Cooler.

Students in Work Preparation Class learn employability skills by selling ice cream in The Cooler. Students received practice making change, taking inventory and waiting on customers.

The profits from the store were used to pay for various activities which the students wanted to participate in. The class went cross country skiing for the afternoon in February, visited the Double R. Ranch where they were able to fish, ride horses and take walks and also they took a tour of the Michigan State campus. These activities helped to add excitement to the regular school year.

The local Special Olympics were also a big event for the students. The olympics were held in May. The students practiced everyday prior to the olympics to increase their ability in their certain activities.

This year proved to be a rewarding and enjoyable year for many of these students. Plans for next year's events were already in progress.

Achievements Complement Variety Of Classes

This year's Business Club was led by a new advisor, Miss Frantz. Recently they were admitted to the national organization of Future Business Leaders of America.

With planned trips to Amway Corp, Davenport College, and Michigan State Univ., they had a very busy year.

The Industrial Arts were quite active this year, with their projects and other class happenings. This year the Industrial Arts classes that that were offered were; Drafting 1-4, Electronics 1-4, Metal Shop 1-2 and Machine Woods 1-2.

Student Council Accelerates, Skiers Slide

The whole purpose behind having a Student Council is to let the students elect people that they think will best represent them during the year. Well, IHS students seemed happy with their choices for the 1979-80 school year.

The Council received an unbelievable amount of support from the student body for the many activities they took part in. These activities included sponsoring the Homecoming dance, selling "Bite 'Em Bulldogs" hats during halftime of home games, and collecting canned goods during the holidays.

All of these activities were successful due to the help of the officers, who were Todd Treusdell, President; Annette Fernholz, Vice-President; Roxanne Ross, Secretary; and Ed Brown, Treasurer.

Also taking part during the year were two new advisors, Ms. Cerise Fuhrman and Mrs. Janet Powell. They were both very helpful when it came to thinking up new ideas for raising money and school spirit.

The Ski Club wasn't as active this year because of the lack of snow. However, Instructor Chuck Hollon still managed to get the club over to Cannonsburg toward the end of the season. Members of the club took it upon themselves to go to other parts of upper Michigan to get to the better skiing conditions. Mr. Hollon also arranged for a Ski club trip to Crystal Mt. for a day.

Something For All Still Goes

The English and Home Ec. departments at IHS are only two of the many areas that help to prepare students for life after graduation, whatever it might be.

Many college-prep English classes were offered, from Modern World Literature to Contemporary Expression. Students were given every opportunity to express themselves in the way that felt best to them, whether it was through poetry or a newspaper article.

Home Ec. classes taught both girls and boys alike. Students were involved in such activities as cooking, sewing, and even giving a simulated bridal shower.

FFA Improved Itself, Nature

FFA went another year as the largest organization in Ionia High School. They had a busy year with projects, trips, and contests.

The main project this year was the nature trail at Boyce School. They dug a pond near the trail, released 15 pheasants in the area, seeded the area with grass, put up a wooden duck house, and they made signs for the trail.

Some of their other projects were their annual fruit sale, calendar, and garden seed sales, parking the cars at home varsity football games, and taking soil samples for the farmers who wanted them in Ionia. They also raised chickens, in which some were sold and others were put in a contest. The latest project was the signs they put up to welcome people to Ionia.

Their major trip this year was to Kansas City for the National Convention. Ten students from IHS traveled with Advisor Charles Vandenburg to the get-together where they met people from many other chapters in the nation. Those attending came back with many new ideas for Ionia about leadership for the club and farming tips for members.

NHS Undergoes Many Changes

There have been a few additions to the NHS this year, one of which was the naming of two new advisors—Maribeth Tronsen and Maryalice Frantz to head up the program.

Although standards for membership weren't changed, unlike last year, there was an induction ceremony this year, in the Watt Auditorium.

To qualify for membership, students must maintain a high grade average, and turn in a card requesting membership to the society.

With planned museum trips, and a trip to Stratford, Ontario, plus the usual fund raising activities the NHS will have a busy year.

Journalists, Keeping Busy?

The Spotlight staff was very busy this year trying to keep the student body and the community informed on school affairs.

Sue Conner, editor of this years Spotlight, was very busy trying to keep up on current happenings in the school as was yearbook editor Diann Chipman.

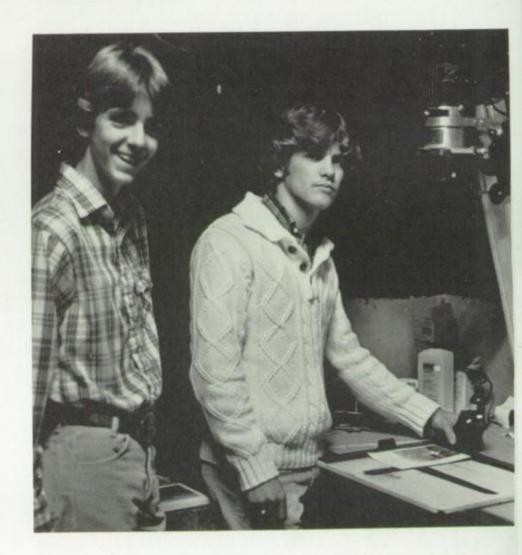

There were a large number of seniors this year, 16 in total, that wrote stories and hoped they made the deadline set by Dennis Zuver, Spotlight advisor. There were quite a few juniors this year on the Spotlight staff as well as on the yearbook staff.

New Year Brings New Opportunity to Students

Algebra, Geometry, Trig, the list goes on and on of the math classes students take at IHS. This year it was no different as freshman took their required one year of math, while college bound students advanced to other classes.

A new class was added to the math department this year with the arrival of ten new computers. A computer programming class was set up under the direction of Mr. Lynch and was open to Seniors and Juniors only. Next year more classes of computer programming will be offered.

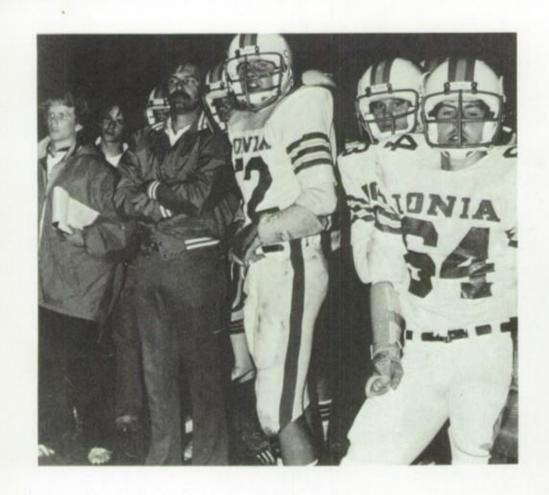

The class of "81" got their chance at U.S. History this year which is required for Juniors. The Senior class took their annual semester of Government while many other students enjoyed Current Events and World History.

Enthusiasm And Pride Exceed Season Record

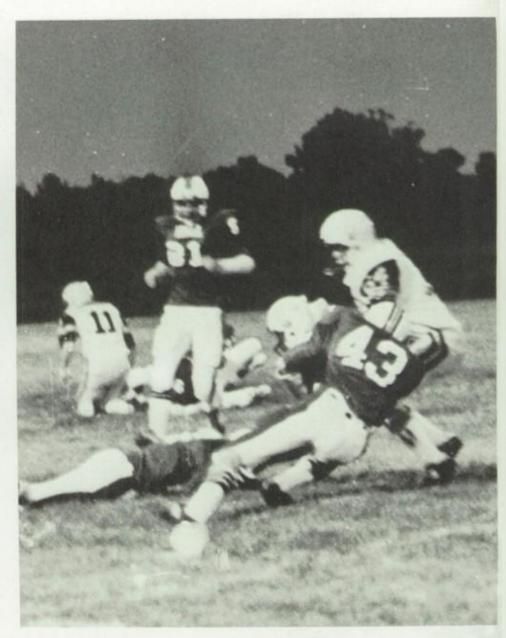

The '79 Varsity Bulldogs had some high hopes for their first season in the Mid-Michigan B League.

The Bulldogs were beaten in their season opener against arch rival Lowell 24-0. They then got back on the winning track by beating Big Rapids 18-13 and winning their first League game by beating Ovid-Elsie 20-14. They then lost 4 in a row and finished last with Alma in the league with Chesaning winning it by going 5-0. After the league season was completed the Bulldogs beat Chippewa Hills 21-14 but lost the final game 20-0 to Lakewood.

Although they had a losing season they still played with enthusiasm and pride. Coach Dan Painter and Assistants Ray Monte and Gary Welch continued their fine coaching tradition, this having been Coach Painter's 3rd year with Many Bulldogs received numerous awards at the Annual Football Banquet. Barry Stout received the Chuck Kohloff 100% award; Jim Loveless received most improved player; and co-captains selected by the team were Matt Macauley and Mike Eddington. Mike also received first team all conference, along with Jim Loveless, on offense and defense. Mike was named at quarterback and safety and Jim at linebacker and nose-man. In addition, Mike received honorable mention for All-State by the Detroit Free Press.

Bulldogs Play Close to League Leaders

Team Showed Character Reflected In Teamwork

The Ionia JV football team showed potential to be good varsity players at the end of the year, shutting out their last two opponents. The victims were Chippewa Hills, 14-0, and Lakewood, 28-0. The Bulldogs also beat league rival St. Johns to finish the season at 3-5-1.

According to sixth year coach Chuck Hollon, "I was pleased with the way the team stayed mentally up even though they went 0-4 in the middle of the season. As a result, they finished the year with two impressive wins. This is to tribute to their character and discipline."

Hollon also noted that he liked the competition in a league much better than an independent schedule.

He also stated that his team was a team which played together to win, and no one player was the outstanding figure.

The Freshmen team went 1-6 under new head coach Jack Manciu. Manciu replaced Chuck Warner while Terry Johnson, who had many banner seasons as a player at IHS, took out the vacant assistant coach position.

The 9th grade Bulldogs learned mainly the fundamentals and basics of high school football as they prepared to enter their sophomore season.

Girls Make Second Place Finish in MMB Race

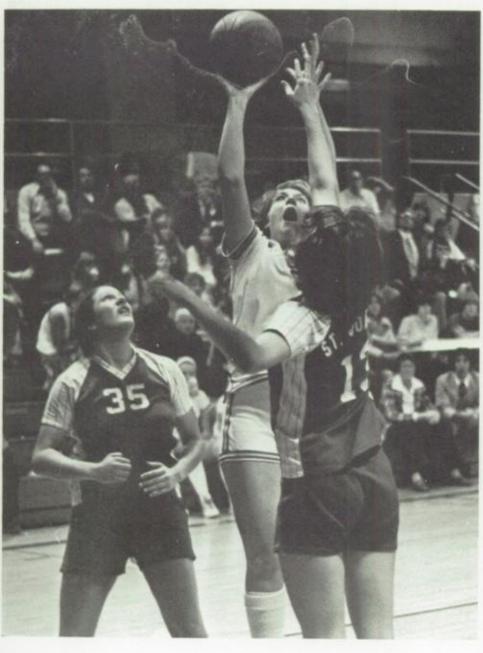

In a season marked with events leading to records established by Mary Fox with 40 rebounds in the Belding game, Ionia's girls basketball team finished second in the Mid-Michigan B League and made a strong run for the District Championships before finally losing to Grand Rapids Christian, 49-43.

Fox also received special recognition in the Lansing State Journal Pre Salute, first team Mid-Michigan B Conference. Also recognized, but for Honorable mention, was Kelly Renucci and Ellen Goodmiller. This is the first time they've been in a league that selected all conference.

Bulldogs did not have a captain, as the captain was chosen on a rotating basis. Most valuable player for the season was Mary Fox.

Ionia finished tied for second in the final league standards with Chesaning, while St. Johns took first.

Frosh And J.V. Have Good Year Due To Work And Unity

Upcoming Girls Basketball at IHS looks very favorable as both the Freshman and J.V. teams had successful seasons. The J.V. team won the Mid-Michigan B J.V. title while the Freshman went undefeated, 6-0.

The Freshman team, coached by Rene Johnson, started out the season beating Ovid Elsie and from then on there was no stopping the Bulldogs as they went undefeated.

Team leaders recognized by Coach Johnson were Beth Ciangi and Julie Cope, but adds, "We were all a team and couldn't do it without each other."

The secret to their success, according to Coach Johnson, was unity, closeness and teamwork.

The J.V. team coached by Jim

VanSyckle also had a very successful year. Being the first year in Mid-Michigan B League, the J.V. captured the title and ended up with a record of 12 wins and 5 loses, winning the last nine games in a row.

Team leaders according to Van-Syckle were; Linda Stout, Karen Ertl, and Christine Selfridge. Stout led the team in points with a 93 season total followed by Selfridge with 79. Leading rebounders were; Carol LaPointe, Linda Stout, and Denise Linderman. Recognized for assists were; Karen Ertl, Christine Selfridge and Debbie Saterlee.

According to Coach VanSyckle, "great attitude and defense were the reasons for their success."

Keys For A Good Season: Concentration, Style And Experience

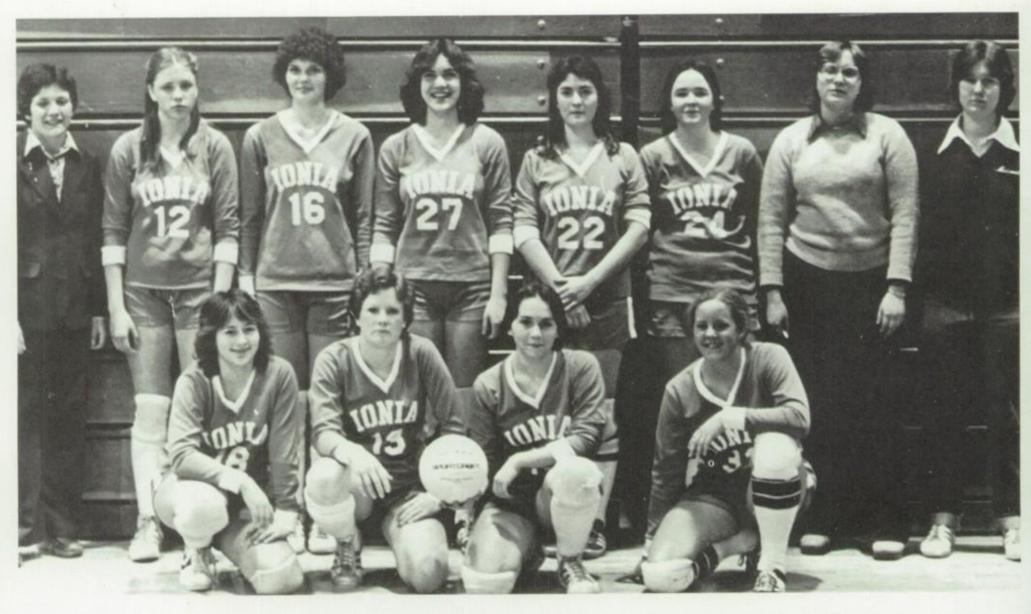

Concentration, style, and experience were the keys to a successful season in golf and gymnastics. The girl's golf team showed this to be true by having the best win-loss record in the entire history of girls golf at Ionia High School, winning 10 and losing only 6. They topped their season with a low score of 188 against Caledonia, a victory that was included among a 7-match winning streak. To end the season right Judy Bliss, Cindy Hayden, Betsy Seymour, and Linda Stout paced the team to 3rd place in the Kalamazoo tournaments. The squad finished in 11th place in Regionals. Other team members this year included Pat Adgate and Marianne Astle.

The girls gymnastics team also turned in a successful season of winning 4 and losing 5. The team attended three invitationals—one in Freeland, one in Wayland, and hosted the Ionia invitational meet. The high score for the season was 86.50 in an invitational meet.

The most valuable player was Martha Sykes, most improved was Lori Lower, hardest worker was Marion Petipren, and most supportive was Karen Renucci.

As it looks, the team will have a promising future, because all members will be returning to Coach Nancy Reighard's squad.

Under the leadership of Rene Johnson, first year head volleyball coach, the I.H.S. girls' varsity volleyball team ended the season with a 1-15 record, coming from behind with a great effort to beat Ovid-Elsie early in the season.

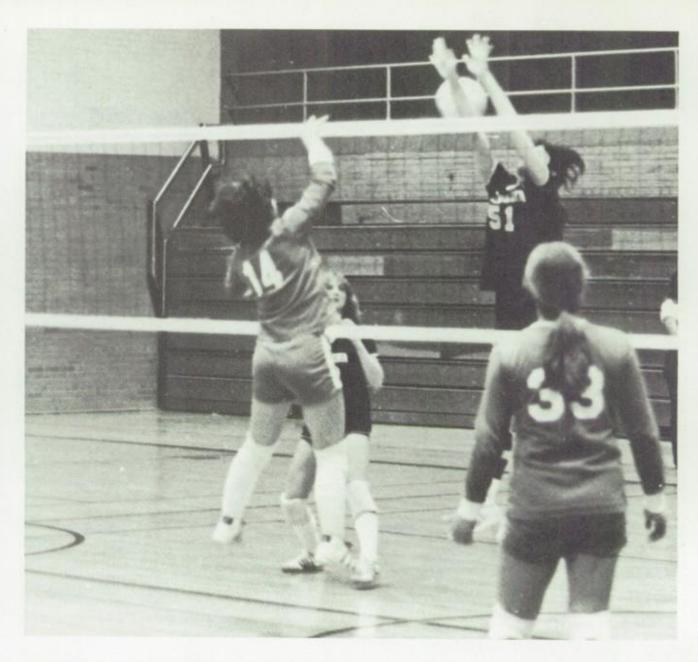

Senior Ellen Goodmiller was nominated the most valuable player on the team. Sophomore, Beth Hausserman was voted most improved and Jill Johnson received the honor of contributing the most.

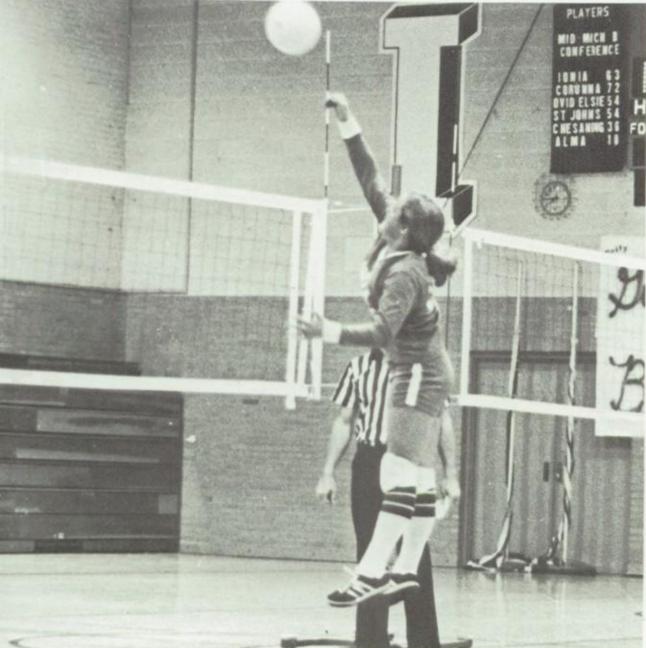

Statistic wise, Sue Utley led the way in scoring with 100 points. Ellen Goodmiller added 51 while Jill Johnson respectively contributed 48.

Most spikes were turned in by Kelly Renucci with 67 followed by Ellen Goodmiller with 41.

"Work Together As A Team"

The J.V. Volleyball squad this year was coached by Rene Johnson, a teacher at Rather Elementary School. The team worked together and, according to Coach Johnson, improved by the end of the year.

They had an overall record of 6 and 9. They had many outstanding players, but chosen as most valuable was T.J. Hallock. Most improved was Connie Hull and Kim Leiter, while Connie Hull contributed the most. Kelly Doornbos scored the most points with 39, followed by Brenda Stout with 38. Tami Peterson had 12 spikes followed by T.J. Hallock with 8.

The 1980 Freshman Volleyball squad had a tough season this year, winning 1 and losing 6. Most of the matches were very close and the girls worked hard throughout the campaign.

The Freshmen were also coached by Rene Johnson. The most valuable player was Terri Purkey; Most improved was Tammy Durst; while the one contributing the most was Janine Ackerson. Terri Purkey also had the most spikes with 8, followed by Lynn Syrjala with 5.

Team Pitches in Good Year

The Ionia Girls Varsity Softball Team finished their season with a respectable 6-5 record and showed how good they really were when they went to the district finals where they finally lost to Alma in their post-season finale.

Cherie White led the team this season in batting as she had the highest batting average and also had the most rbi's. Cherie was also the team pitcher. Coach Rene Johnson said, "Cherie was the 'spark plug' of the team. She always seemed to help keep the team together."

Other outstanding players on the squad noted by Coach Johnson were Karen Kilduff, Jackie Grobbel, Ellen Goodmiller, Marti Gladding, Patty Woodbury and Sandy Boehm.

Coach Johnson also expressed her hopes of having a good year this year in the Mid-Michigan B League.

As the old story goes, it's not if you win or lose, it's how you play the game. This was entirely true with the Ionia grapplers, winning only 1 out of 13 matches.

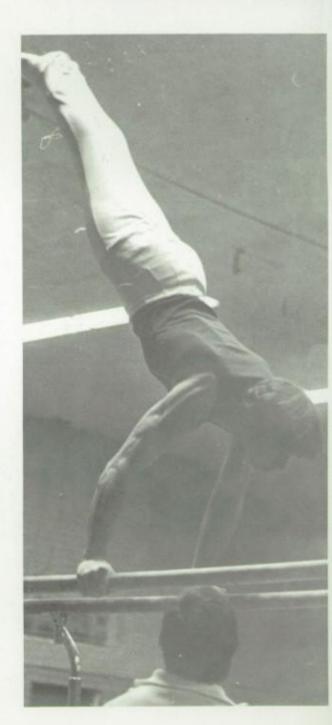

In the coming year they hope to raise their record, with the help of three returning all league players. Returning will be juniors Bob Lennemann in the 138 lbs. weight class, Roy Kapp in the 112 lbs. weight class, and sophomore Doug Willard in the 132 lbs. weight class.

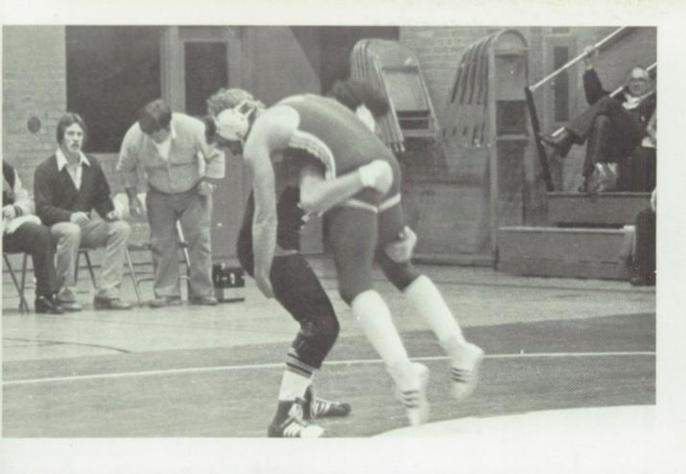

The boy's gymnastics team had a dedicated and hard working season finishing in fourth place with 4 wins and 6 losses. They qualified to advance to the state finals.

Most valuable player was Bruce Schafer. He was named to the all league team as an all-arounder due to his third place finish in the league. Returning with Schafer next year as seniors will be Karl Schneider. He placed third in the St. Johns invitational. Another returning player who received recognition was sophomore Pat O'Keefe. Golfers Hold Ground, Runners Pass It By

The cross country team did not fare well, losing all fifteen of their meets. Many fine performances were turned in by the runners however, as they tried to rebuild a team hurt by graduation.

"Even though my first year as coach wasn't a great one, we have many young runners returning and I am looking forward to next season," replied Chris Young who took over the helm of the Bulldogs this year.

Among those young runners were Juniors, Scott Gorby and Dave Maynard, who ran one and two for Ionia all year. Seniors Randy Riley and Mark Westbrook are the only two runners leaving the team.

The boys golf team had a successful season under Mike Dryer this year finishing with a 4-6 conference record and 8-7 overall. They were fourth in the Mid-Michigan B. The linksters were led by Senior Bruce Flint, who averaged 2.5 over par for the year, in addition to making the all conference team. Freshman Brian Rozeboom also made a great contribution.

Aggressive Heads Up Play Carries Team To Second Place

You couldn't have asked for a more exciting campaign from the Ionia Bulldogs in their first season of Mid Michigan B play. The Bulldogs opened their schedule with a win over Ovid-Elsie and just picked up steam from then on. But they met Corunna for the probable championship of the league. And by one basket in double over time the dream didn't come true. Ionia finished second behind the Cavaliers with a 7-3 mark.

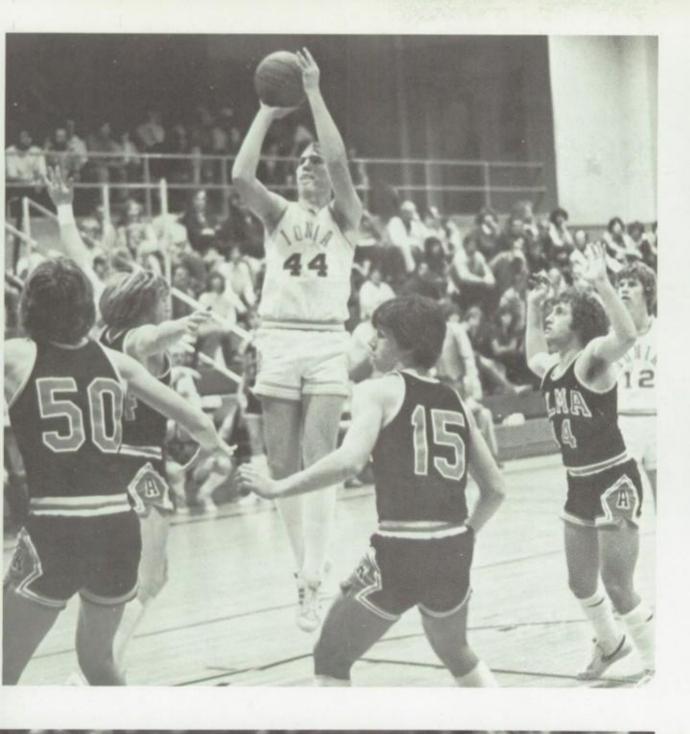

But over all the Bulldogs were 13-7, and Coach Gorsuch commented, "they were a good group to work with. They always gave 100%."

Ionia had some key players this year. Sophomore Jim Klein was brought up from the J.V.'s and made a great contribution. Seniors

Bob Sykes, Dan Rubach, and Mike Eddington were very consistent. Rubach was voted team captain, Eddington MVP and Sykes Most Improved. Along with these awards Mike Eddington was named first-team all conference, while Jim Klein received a second-team berth. Bob Sykes gained honorable mention.

It looked like possibly an easy road in post season tournament District action for the Bulldogs, as in the first game they defeated Lowell by almost 20 points. Then it was to be past Greenville to the regionals. But Ionia didn't fare too well against the Jackets and lost by 8. But, on the whole, the Bulldogs did well for being the "New kid on the block" in the league and should be tougher still in the near future.

Teams Are 'Coachable' And Play Good Games

For Coach Vince Nevin's J.V. team, this was their first year in the MMB conference. They finished second with a 7-3 mark. Coach Nevins commented that this team was very "coachable." John Stowell lead the team in assists averaging 4.6 a game. Tim Ludwick led the team in rebounding with 13 a game, while leading scorers were Ludwick (16.3) and Stowell (16.1). The team also tied the old record of 8 wins in a row winning their last 8 games. With a 13-7 overall record the future looks bright for the varsity next year.

According to Freshman coach Jim Van Syckle, the 79-80 team played well but lacked intensity. The Bulldogs finished with an 8-7 overall record while finishing 2-3 in the conference. The Bulldogs played some great games, one of which broke the Pewamo-Westphalia team's winning streak at 14.

Bob Hayden led all scorers with 143 points followed closely by Brad Burrows. Burrows also led in the rebounding dept. with 121. Meanwhile Todd Gorsuch dished out 47 assists on the year.

Coach Steve Byes "B" squad finished a disappointed 0-8 but many boys got a chance to play when they might not have otherwise.

Netters Start With High Hopes And Tough Opponents

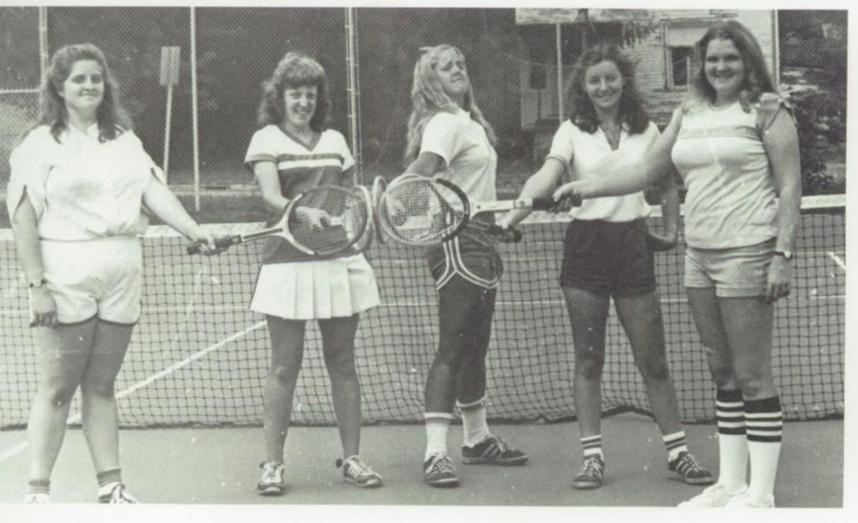

Poor weather, a lack of doubles teams, and tougher competition spelled the difference this year for the girls tennis team as the netters finished the season at 2-7.

Ionia doubles combinations won only one match all year long and according to fifth year coach Gary Keolsch, "You can't win matches with singles alone."

Beth Haussermann was 5-4 at fourth singles and Janice Raymond compiled the same record at second singles.

"We started out the season with high hopes but we played a much tougher schedule this year. The girls all participated well, however, as fifteen girls started the season and the same number finished," commented Keolsch.

Ionia also participated in the Sparta Doubles tournament and the Redskin Invitational, while placing twelth in the regionals.

Netters Hope to Improve 9-4 Record with Dry Season

With six seniors and ten returning lettermen, Ionia's varsity tennis team compiled a 9-4 record as they prepared to enter the Mid-Michigan B conference.

The Bulldog netters won the Maple Valley Invitational for the second consecutive year, with many players repeating as first place medalists. They also placed fifth in their thirteen team regional.

Two of the Bulldogs' losses came at the hands of the Greenville Yellowjackets, plus a loss to now league rival St. Johns and a heartbreaker at Charlotte in a match in which Ionia lost three third set tiebreakers.

Twelfth year coach Vince Nevins was pleased with his team's effort as he said, "We were a strong team this year that perhaps would have a better record if rain hadn't taken away some of the matches."

Outstanding performances during the year included Senior Chris Kenyon's 10-3 record at first singles and Jerry Adam's 12-2 record. Senior Dan Scholtens finished his career at 45-19, an Ionia record for most victories.

Larry Norton and Adams were runner-up at second doubles at the regionals in Belding.

Next year will be a year of change for the Bulldogs as they will be striving for the conference championship, playing never before foes Chesaning, Corunna, and Ovid-Elsie.

Team Runs Low on Wins, High on Spunk

The 1979 track team had a rough go of it this year, ending up with only a 1-4 dual meet record. But there were some bright spots during the season for some of the thinclads. One of these was Stuart Carr, who set a record of 6 feet in the high jump. The previous record was 5'11-½" set by Bill Eddington in 1976. Other bright spots on the team for the Bulldogs this season were Jeff Allen, sprinter, who led the team in points scored and was also selected as the most valuable player along with Gordy Conrad.

Gordy received his recognition through running in distances fromthe 220 to the mile. Erik Durak, hurdler, was also noted as the most improved player on the squad.

"This year's varsity squad didn't have as many seniors as there have been in recent years, and they are very important to a team," commented Coach Chuck Hollon. He also added, "I feel we have a strong group of underclassmen and could be quite competitive in our first year in the Mid-Michigan B Conference."

Quality, Not Quantity, Wins

This year's girls track team exemplified the saying, "It's not quantity but quality that makes a team," as very few girls completed the season.

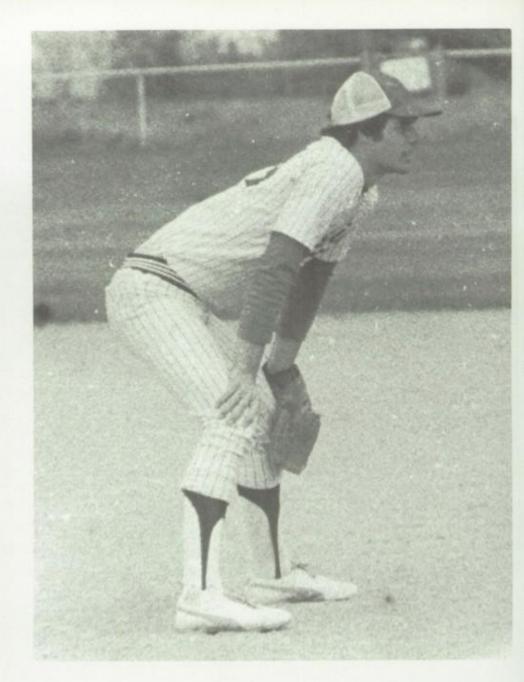

With the handicap of only a few members, the team had to emphasize with strong talent in specific areas to rack up the points. Carol McBride, Kelly Renucci and Sue Ferguson were the main sprinters; Lisa LaCross, Mary Fox and Winona Mustaine in field events; Ester Wiles and Kathy Bierman in hurdles; and Diane Sliger, Donnette Gorsuch, and Kathy Mason in long distance.

There were many highlights this year. Mary Fox was named All-area in Lansing State Journal. In the Meet of the Champions, Winona Mustaine and Lisa LaCross placed. Mustaine was 2nd in the shotput and LaCross 2nd in the long jump and high jump.

Also, many new things highlighted the season. There were two new coaches, Steve Bye, Elementary Art Teacher, and Chris Young, Boyce Elementary School teacher. Bye was in charge mainly with field events and sprinters, while Young was in charge of long distance.

A new event was introduced this year for girls, the 220 low hurdles, in which a record was set by Ester Wiles.

.500 Campaign Experienced By IHS Varsity Baseball Team

Ionia's Varsity Baseball team seemed to have a see-saw season. The team finished above .500 with a 11-10 mark but were loud with many problems along the way.

Although the team was plagued with many injuries during the season and many players lacked experience, Mr. Frank Ciangi stated that the replacements rose to the occasion. "We never gave up," he replied, "even when injuries forced us to use players in strange positions".

An oddity of the year was that the team had only 2 seniors, Gary Bushong and Jason Mayle. Gary pitched 3 years on the Varsity and had the most career strike outs for any pitcher for Coach Ciangi. Jason, meanwhile, played center field and was a consistant hitter for the bulldogs. Jason was a 2 year man.

The Bulldogs participated in the Alma Invitational Baseball Tournament and came in second among eight teams. They defeated Ithaca, Mt. Pleasant, and Petoskey before losing to Alma 4-2 in the championship game.

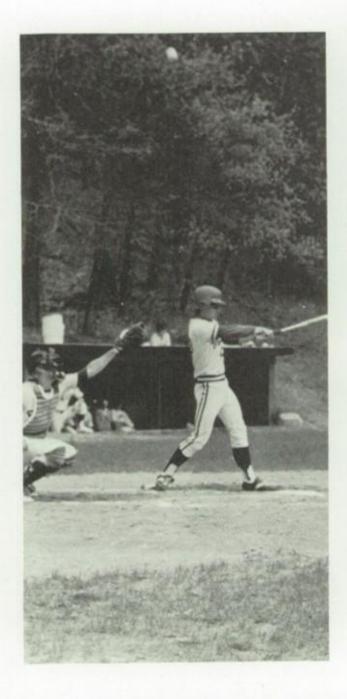

The future looks good for Coach Ciangi and his Bulldogs. With all the team returning but 2 and with everyone well experienced it should be exciting next year, in the Mid-Michigan B League.

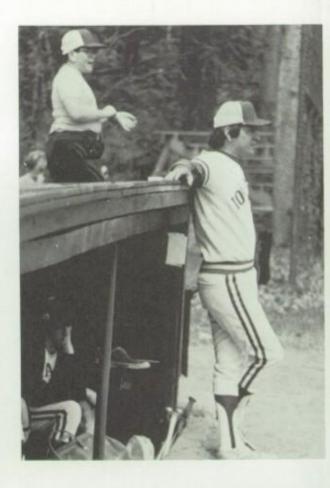

Team Excels With Even-Up Season Record

Coach Mike Dryer's J.V. Baseball team finished the season with a .500 mark of 6-6. One of the fine points of the team was its outstanding hitting. Vaughn Mayle, Kieran Simon, Pete Grobbel and Brian Barnett were among the top hitters with Brian breaking the old home run record of 2 to 3 in one season.

Chris Swinehart, Greg Patrick, and Kevin Lamphere were noted for their fine fielding attributes by playing consistantly on the diamond. From the pitching stand point, Vaughn Mayle pitched a 4-2 record along with Barnett and Pete Fineis doing the job. Vaughn was elected most valuable and was a team captain. The future looks good for the J.V.'s

The freshman, with Don Gorsuch at the helm, chalked up a 9-5 record. Tim Bennett, Dan Laney, and Randy Bush lead the team as hitters, while in the pitching department, Tab Waterman went 6-1 to lead the team. Coach Gorsuch said the team did a good job in mastering key fundamentals. A high point of the season was the defeat of Grand Ledge, which has never been done since Ionia had a freshman team.

Support And Enthusiasm Are Basic Concerns

What does a team need besides a coach? Fans! And that's exactly what the cheerleaders and pompon girls at IHS were for the Basketball and Football teams. Support and enthusiasm for the players were their main concerns as they practiced each week.

Under the supervision of Miss Gayle Garrett, the Freshmen, J.V., and Varsity cheerleading squads were involved in making posters, arranging pep assemblies, and attending a cheerleading clinic at CMU.

Seniors on the Varsity squad were Tracy Gorsuch, Beth Ludwick, and Robin White.

The pom pon girls had a change in their routine around the middle of the school year. Mrs. Diane Robinson, the advisor for the squad, left to have a baby then Tina Thomas, an IHS art teacher, took her place.

The pom pon girls took part in the pre-game activities at home football games, and half-time of home basketball games.

The only senior on the squad for the 1979-80 year was Jackie Schaefer.

Marchers Earn Many Things During Year, New Uniforms And High Ratings Included

"We're always Ready" was the enthusiastic cry of the 1979 marching band.

One of the reasons for the enthusiasm was this year's drum maor, Barry Sherman. Barry, a senior, was also chosen best camper at this year's summer camp. The girls chosen for best campers were Seniors Cindy Confer and Jill Johnson.

Under the direction of Mr. Charles Brill the band has had a very successful season. The band received a division #1 rating at the District Festival.

Special projects were the annual magazine drive and also their candle sale.

Adding their own touch of class, this year's majorettes served as a special effect to the success of the band.

The 1979 majorettes were: Captain Karen Renucci; Brenda Avery; Molly Griffin; Debbie Sydow; Hanna Guernsey; Carol Hanulcik and Renee Hall.

The pep band, under the direction of Mr. Charles Brill, displayed more of that bursting enthusiasm. The band, though small, roused the fans and added to the IHS spirit. They proved there was spirit at pep assemblies and basketball games.

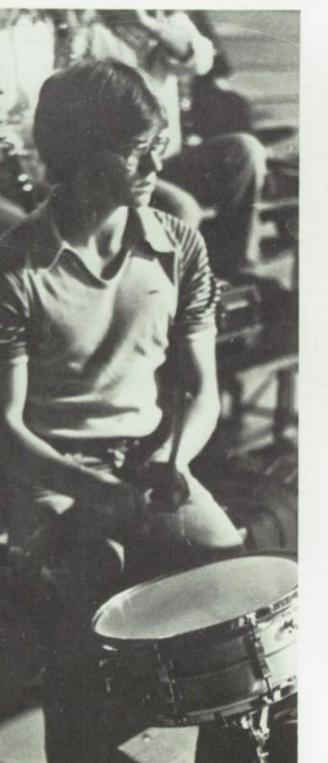

Mr. Andrew MacFarland, director of ninth grade band, helped to teach the fundamentals to his students. These techniques will be useful in their future as high school band members.

KNEELING: Deb Sydow, Hanna Guernsey. STANDING: Molly Griffin, Karen Renucci, Caro Hanulcik, Brenda Avery, and Renee Hall.

Changes Influence Entire Student Body

With every year comes a little change, and the 1979-80 school year at IHS was no different.

Along with a new principal, high schoolers in Ionia got many of his new ideas. Mr. Mike Shatusky replaced Mr. Lester Burch, who took a position in Massachusetts similar to the one he left behind. Mr. Shatusky came to us from Howell, and brought many bright and helpful hints with him.

Mr. Elvin Betz continued his position at IHS as assistant principal. Along with the help of Mr. Shatusky, Mr. Betz worked to enforce the proper discipline and order necessary to keep everything under control.

Mr. David Eddington, superintendent, and Mr. Evan Nielson, assistant superintendent, worked along with members of the School Board to maintain a smoothly running school system in Ionia.

Members of the School Board for the year were: Stephen Watt, James Purkey, John O'Keefe, Bill Fate, Richard Hull, Hollis Treadway, and James Sanborn.

Who Is That Behind The Desk?

When you hear the words typing, filing, answering the phone, writing excuses, and taking messages, what do you think of? Secretaries! Well there were lots of them at IHS in 1979-80. There were three ladies working in Mr. Shatusky's office this year. They were Arla Skelding, Marilyn Hofbauer, and Lucy Hughes. Working in Mr. Betz's office for another year was Phyllis Powell. New to the group of secretaries was Jeanette Hodson, who worked in the Counseling office.

Being a high school counselor includes many important duties, such as talking with students, planning registration for classes, and helping students prepare for college. All of these tasks were handled with great efficiency by the IHS counselors. With each one doing his or her own part to help, everything seemed to be running smoothly all year. The counselors for the year were Mr. Thomas Frahm, Ms. Vickie Barlow, and Mrs. Linda Stuart.

BOTTOM: Mrs. Lesky works to keep the library running efficiently.

Thanks For The Help, We Appreciate It!

What student doesn't sweat out a problem before coming up with a brilliant solution—the library! Mrs. Lesky and Mrs. Stein are kept busy all day checking out books and nelping out students who are close to lost causes with a special assignment or report too hard to tackle alone.

The library has that special hush to it that gives you the impression of great minds at work. We know one reason—a word of warning or that patented look from Mrs. Lesky that keeps us in line.

Did you ever wonder who is responsible for the great filmstrips that were interesting as well as a nice break from the classroom routine? What you're thinking of is the AV room with Mr. Oliver and Mrs. Sutherland working in there to keep the films up to date and doing other things, such as tapes with information for students and operating the copying machine, not to mention making that relaxing cup of coffee for teachers.

Was Today Really Necessary?

Looking at these pictures you probably wonder how cooks, custodians and nurses all fit in together. But just consider a typical day up at IHS.

Third hour is finally over and it's lunchtime, Yippee! but the cook's surprise really surprised your stomach and in your haste to get to the nurses' office you forgot to open the door before you ran through it. What a mess! No problem, the dedicated employees of IHS will fix the door and you up in a jiffy and get you back to start fourth hour. They relaize how you would hate to miss them.

Well, this "typical day" may be a bit exaggerated but the well executed jobs of the people behind the scenes are sure appreciated when times of need arise. People don't realize, though, the little things done to keep ole IHS in tip top condition.

Cold Days, Warm Feelings, Hard Work All Fit Together

It was a cold day when a certain ten seniors received passes to go see Principal Mike Shatusky.

They stood together in the reception office wondering what on earth they all could have done. It was then that Mr. Shatusky stepped out from his office and with complete seriousness said, "Won't you all come in and have a seat?"

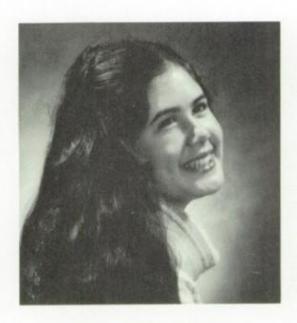

The anxiety level by this time was at an all time high. Mr. Shatusky turned to face them and it was now that the smile surfaced. The words, "Congratulations. You have been chosen as Ionia High School's top ten seniors," appeared to freeze each individual student.

The fear that had been within was suddenly replaced by feelings of pride and accomplishment as he called names in order of rank.

First in line was Valedictorian Marilyn Hoover, followed by Salutatorian Mary Beth Braun and for Scholarship was Ed Brown. The others that followed were Rebecca Sterner, Connie Ciangi, Celeste Mutrynowski, Cindy Warren, Diann Chipman, Lisa Hewartson, and Roxann Ross.

Fear and Happiness Rekindled Memories As Those Last Days for Seniors Drew Near

Seniors! It's hard to believe. Though at times it seemed like the last year of high school would never get here, at other times it seemed like the underclassman years had flown by.

It's not until your senior year that you start to appreciate the better side of being in high school that the underclassmen seem to take for granted. Even the least sentimental of people can get a little bit choked up when they realize it could be the last time they root for their team as a member of the Ionia Bulldogs, whether it was for football, basketball, cross country, or volleyball.

IHS members of the class of 1980 were no different than any other seniors when it came to the thoughts that ran through their minds as graduation drew nearer. Friends seemed to grow closer as they thought of the years they'd spent together. As freshmen they felt the same fear when they walked through those big front doors for the first time, and they felt the same lump in their throats as they picked up their diplomas.

From study hall to prom to Driver's Ed. to homework to parties, the class of '80 made it through all of it together. They started together as freshmen and four years later started again. Although they may go separate ways, nothing can take away the memories they hold of each other and of good old IHS.

Mock Elections Turn Out Interesting for All

TOP LEFT: We'll try anything to keep most talkatives Mark Macauley and Chris Watson

TOP RIGHT: Being most gullible doesn't always mean that you're dumb, just look at the smart buy that Avalon Reynolds and Pete Hanson made: the School!

BOTTOM RIGHT: Can this be Marilyn Hoover and Ed Brown, most likely to succeed, reduced to picking for food?

TOP LEFT: Nope, it's not most casual but best dressed Craig Finkel and Jane Dipzin-

got Mr. Steward whipped.
MIDDLE LEFT: You can see that most athletic Kelly Renucci and Mike Eddington really know their sports.

really know their sports.

BELOW: Most musical Barry Sherman and Jill Johnson take time out from rigorous practice to relax at the piano. Talk about band egg-heads.

BOTTOM LEFT: Best couple Sue Ferguson and Steve LaPointe seem to come as a matched set, you'd have to use a crowbar to pry them apart in the halls! BOTTOM RIGHT: Randy Riley and Mary Braun try to decide whose hair is prettiest-his or hers?

Various Rewards Come With Being A Junior

The nose in a book is the usual scene of a Junior with the academic schedule being much harder. This year's Juniors survived the hectic school year to pull together for a successful and fun year.

Among the extra curricular activities, in which many of the Juniors were able to participate for the first time this year, were Varsity sports and the responsibility of organizing the Christmas dance and the annual prom. The acceptance of students in the National Honor Society is also a difficult but rewarding experience.

Along with the challenge of the required History classes and other academic pursuits, many students went on to take the ACT Test for college. These are a few new and exciting things that go on when you are preparing to become a Senior along with the thrill of getting the car on Friday night.

Leading the class of '81 this year was President Dan Gemuend, Vice President Jeannie Gaffney, Secretary Annette Fernholz, and Treasurer Laura Bettinghouse. Student Council reps were: Carrie Anderson, Lisa LaCross, Andy Bowne, Tina Conner, Donnette Gorsuch and Jan Weisgerber.

Two Down And Two To Go For Sophomores

Two down and two to go could be the slogan for the class of 1982. They are no longer the new faces of the high school, as the first jitters are long gone.

The sophomores gained more responsibility by sponsoring dances and choosing their class rings, but the biggest responsibility of all was getting their driver's license.

The sophomores made up the Junior Varsity squads in athletics. They gained more recognition and had to try harder to impress the spectators because they were no longer the beginners.

While we were getting ready for the presidential election of 1980, the sophomores had their own election, electing Eric Rick, Connie Hall, Mary Carr, Linda Stout, Gwen Stoakes, and Connie Swain to represent their class.

Nervousness Subsides As Freshmen Blend In

There was quite a change when the class of '83 entered IHS, but after the first few days when the nervousness was gone, they found that they could get in, out and about just like the others. To get to know IHS and its people there were alot of activities and clubs to get involved with, such as French and Spanish clubs, the Key Club and many others.

The class of '83 student council representatives were David Clore, Kathy Cook, Krista Hauserman, Shari Peacock, Shelly Krampe, Jimmy Rowley, Caren Hamblin and Margaret Kapp.

Familiar rooms now fade away "The work is done," is what we say

We laugh recalling good times past We didn't think to make them last

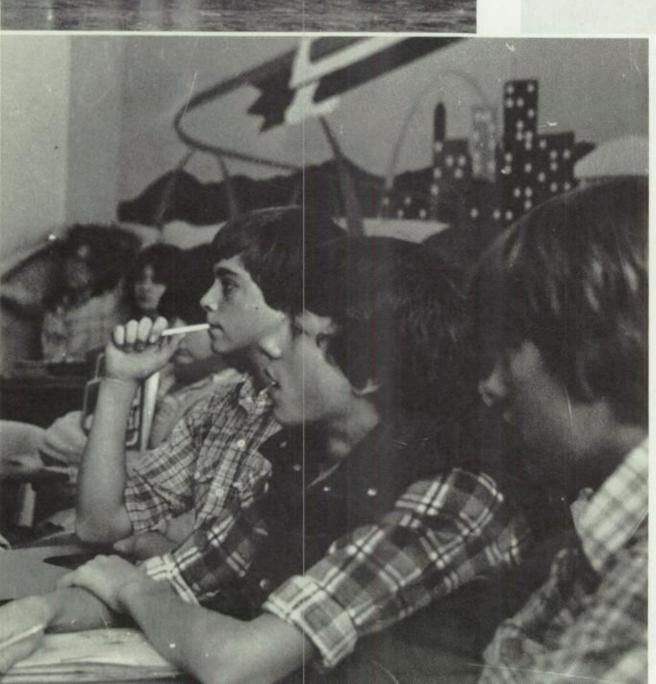

But there's more ahead, we see and then We seem to have reached the Beginning Again...
Ian Weisgerber
